Join the Celebration: A Word from Toby

Every once in a while a crazy, wonderful idea pops up and you must seize the opportunity. While thinking about mounting this production of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat I had a great idea. I thought it might be crazy and it might be a big undertaking, but I was excited by it and wanted to make it happen. So I did.

Coinciding with the 50th anniversary of Columbia and the 45th anniversary of my school, The Columbia Center for Theatrical Arts (CCTA - www.cctarts.org), I wanted to celebrate in a special way. This musical is very dear to my heart. I have had the pleasure of being around during its initial inception in the DC area and have produced the show numerous times myself over our 38 years here. For this run, we have cast 5 different women to portray the role of the Narrator with each one performing for just a few weeks. Each woman has a special connection to Columbia, Toby's, and/or CCTA. A Broadway star returning to her hometown, a Howard County educator back on the Toby's stage, a lifetime performer with CCTA and Toby's....I could go on and on. We have never done this before, but with such a wealth of talent at my fingertips, it was a no brainer. Each woman is special and unique and will bring something new and dynamic to the role and to the overall production. We are thrilled to present this beautiful story with 5 beautiful women taking the reins: Coby Kay Callahan, Cathy Mundy, Janine Sunday (top), MaryKate Brouillet (bottom left) and Caroline Bowman (bottom right).

It will be a brand new show every few weeks, so come back often, be a part of the celebration, and thank you for continuing to support Toby's and live theatre!

Toby Orenstein
Artistic Director of Toby's Dinner Theatre,
Co-Director of Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat

How Do I Tip...?

The answer should be based upon your own personal assessment of the service you have received from your actor/waiter.

Generally, tipping is based on the price of admission plus any beverages purchased from the bar.

If the service has been satisfactory, a tip of 15% is customary.

For those customers who purchased their admission through our group sales department, a gratuity was included in the admission price. Any beverages purchased by you from your actor/waiter, however, did not include a gratuity. As such, a 15% gratuity on those purchases is customary.

Should you find that your actor/waiter has provided you with outstanding service, your recognition of this would be gratefully appreciated. In the event your service has not been up to our excellent standards, please ask to speak to one of our managers.

Thank you for your generosity, and enjoy the show!
